FIDELITY TO CONVICTION

THE TRAIT WHICH MAKES SOME PRO PLE PECULIAR BUT OUGHT NOT TO REV. MICHARD HARCDURT'S SERMON OF LAS SUNDAY EVENING THE NOBILITY OF THOSE WHO HAVE ADHERED FIRMLY TO THE RIGHT. NOTWITHSTANDING POPULAR PREJUDICE

On Sanday evening Rev. Mr. Harcourt, pa tor of the Bloomfield M. E. Church, preached a sermon on "Peculiar People." The house was filled to overflowing and a more deeply interest ed congregation has seldem been seen. The preacher drew his illustrations from earth, bell and heaven and so intensely interested were the people in the discourse that the hour occupied by the speaker seemed a very short time. The text was taken from First Peter, 11, 3.

"Peggiar people!" "We are all more less, and the preacher, "creatures of habit. The law of habit is one of the strongest example and has more power over us than precept. The latter is good but it lacks feet to walk and hands to handle and a heart to feel. Truth must be actualized before it becomes strong The majority of men pever think or act for themselves. They simply think as others think and do as others do. Hence ask them for an opinion on any subject and they will at once inquire what is yours, and having heard it will answer you by saying their's is the same, or so nearly alike will they be that you will not be able to tell them apart. The most pepular grink we have to-day is "the same"! It requires strength to express one's convictious If they differ from your brothers, and still more strengthes required to du, not as others do, but sour own enlightened judgement tells vot and should do. Any dead fish can float with or stream. It requires a live one to go against

The preacher showed how true Christians are "peculiar" in their birth, in their life, and in their death. Religion may be a cumuingly vised table, all a myth, and death-bed expericaces such as we read about and such as - m of as have witnessed, but can infidelity go us anything half as good? Can it calm of frare and soothe our dying pillow? Until is the an auchor to the soul, both sure and A ... (15.18"

But ty at ask me, 'where are these peculiar people to be found? In what church of the class? Some of them are to be found in the burnes and some are to be found outside the church. A few will come out of the h ascepal Church, a few out of the Buptist a few out of the Metholist Church, a few out the Itemap Catholic Church, and a few out of the Unitarian Church. And outside all these will come a great multitude whom no man can number, out of every kindred, tribe and nation.

to catch the spirit and matter would be folly. All doubters of the genuineness of Christianity without "peculiar people," Long before the days of Luther they lived. Before Knox was Terrible Accident.

Necessitating a Surgical Operation-Loving Mother Attempts to take Pair of Shears from Her Child. PARENTS, BE CAREFUL.

Invaluable to every family.

Domestic accidents are common to women, and some of them are very serious. Mrs. Warner. of. South Rondout, Ulster Co., N. Y., some weeks agoattempted to take from her child a pair of shears with which it was playing. A slight struggle easued in which the point of the shears entered Mrs. Warner's left eye, entirely destroying the sight. Her family physician did what he could, but in tensely painful inflammation arose, which, by symblindness to a woman having the care of a house hold is an irretrievable calamity. In this strait Mrs. W. applied to the well-known and skillful Surgeon, Dr. Pari ! Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., ful operation, setting aside all danger of further harm to the sight of the other eye. \ But, owing to pain and mental distress, her system needed a tonic and restorative medicine.
